

Adam Ness

Biography

Declared by Vocalo amongst its "Top 10 Artists to Watch", and by Earmilk as an "R&B legend", Adam Ness has possessed the innate gift of music from childhood. Inspired by the likes of Prince, Aretha Franklin, and Erykah Badu, he is a unique blend of finesse, soul, and power.

Adam's progressive fusion of soul, rock, R&B, funk, and jazz has amassed him a devoted and diverse fan base. His groundbreaking debut album #HighPlaces, and sophomore release Sagittarius delivered listeners infectious hit tunes such as "Blush", "Pretty Boy", "Have A Good Time", and "Houzkatz".

His works have earned him placements on the TV series The Chi and Queen Sugar as well as in big screen soundtracks. In addition to his own creations, Adam has featured on the projects of fellow artists is a coveted writer, producer, and composer - most notably Noname's Room 25 album.

Adam is an explosive live performer, selling out events and headlining concerts across the country. He has shared stages with artists such as Lalah Hathaway, Cece Peniston, and Justine Skye and was a featured vocalist for each show of Noname's 40 city US Room 25 Tour.

Adam's innovative approach in creating music that both captures the nostalgia of classic R&B while infusing his unique alternative sound has earned him the nickname of "The Music Bender" and reputation of master entertainer.
